

Preschool Vision Screening Day Slated Nov. 3

An "All-Ohio Preschool Vision Screening Day" is scheduled by the Ohio Society to Prevent Blindness for Nov. 3.

It will be the first such day. The society hopes to revitalize its preschool screening program, which has dropped from reaching a high of 25,928 children in 1973 to only 13,773 last year.

THE FREE PROGRAM resulted in 521 youngsters being referred last year for help with vision problems. The special statewide screening day is also planned in tribute to 1979's designation as the International Year of the Child.

Mrs. Fred Long of 5246 Bigelow Dr., Hilliard, who was the society's Volunteer of the Year in 1976, is serving as chairwoman for the statewide screening.

The society estimates 22,500 Ohio preschoolers have eye problems. The

THE FREE SCREENINGS help detect amblyopia, also known as "lazy eye," which can cause a permanent vision impairment if not treated by the time a child is 6 or 7 years old.

Volunteer screeners also check for distance vision and tendencies toward nearsightedness, farsightedness and astigmatism.

Virginia Benton, the society's executive director, said a declining birth rate and increased number of working mothers could be responsible for the decreased participation in the free screening program.

As more mothers work, they have less time to take advantage of the program and to participate as screening volunteers, Mrs. Benton explained.

2 Indicted In Fatal Shooting

The Franklin County Grand Jury returned indictments Tuesday against two men accused in the Sept. 28 robbery and shooting of West Side carryout owner Harry E. Scott, who died Sept. 30.

Charles E. Daniel, 20, of 802 E. Starr Ave., and his roommate, John M. Steward, 21, were each indicted by the jury on a charge of aggravated murder.

In addition, Daniel faces three counts of aggravated robbery and Steward was charged with four counts of aggravated robbery.

Scott, who operated Scotty's Carryout, 2354 Sullivant Ave., was shot during the holdup at his business.
